Recognition of Community Members:

Members present: Brad Harrington, Brandon Dabill and Micheal Ackerman.

Brandon questioned if the grader hired was grading what he was billing for. The board pulled the last couple bills of Blade Masters and answered his questions. What was billed to the work done looked correct.

Zoning: Michael Ackerman was present to receive a garage permit. Jerry made a motion to approve the garage permit and Curtis 2nd. All said Aye.

Jerry received a permit from Calvin Rindahl for a Garage and Woodshed. Jerry made the motion to approve the permit and Bob 2nd. All said Aye.

Jerry was contacted by Greg Arrands that he sold property to Ben Carlson and was looking to start the driveway and get a driveway permit. Deputy Clerk Linda stated that Alisha the Primary clerk was contacted about the permit, but it had not come in the mail as of the meeting time. Ben Carlson was not present at the meeting. Jerry motioned to approve the permit on the condition they get the permit and check for the permit to us timely. Curtis 2nd. All said Aye.

Roads:

56th – Bob stated silt has filled the ditch. The board discussed digging it out. The board asked Brad Harrington to look at it and get together with Bob on what or should be done. Brad Agreed.

64th - Curtis stated that the tar patch should be done by Anderson Bros. tentatively tomorrow, 10/08/2024.

72nd - The dirt did not get done at the end of the tar, Bob will call Ray to get the dirt delivered and get this done.

Bridge Signage – Curtis will check what signs we have on hand and order what we have if we need to.

Old Business:

Fire Contract – Bob has not followed up with this yet, he will look contact them soon.

New Business:

It was discussed that this year may be the last year for the Annual Township picnic. Only 2 families were present this year, which were board members.

Jerry asked the rest of the board if he could follow up with the County on their new Short Term Rental rules for our township, if we could possibly have our own policy being we have our own Zoning and many rules in the County Short Term Rental rules do not apply to a rentals in Maple Township. The board approved Jerry to call the county to discuss.
